Kate Raynor Celebrity Immigration Attorney

For over a decade, Kate Raynor has been one of the most sought after immigration attorney for aliens of extraordinary ability in Hollywood. What is an alien of extraordinary ability you might ask? This is the term lawyers use to describe foreign actors and celebrities who want to come to our shores in order to grace us with their extraordinary talents. With the recent increase in films starring foreign actors, her services have become increasingly in demand.

The moment you step into Kate Raynor's lobby, you just know she is not like most attorneys. While other attorneys have bland waiting rooms, hers is full of auto-graphed pictures of famous foreign celebrities whom she has helped come to the land of opportunity. Kate Raynor's clients include many A-list celebrities in Hollywood today. Kate Raynor's clients have starred in such Hollywood Blockbusters as Derailed, Ocean's Twelve, Ocean's Thirteen, Around the World in 80 Days, Letters From Iwo Jima, The Last Samurai, Memoirs of a Geisha, Pink Panther 2, Eastern Promises, 300, and many more.

Additionally she has represented platinum selling music artists from major record labels such as Capitol Records, Atlantic Records, Sony, Maverick and more. These talented musicians not only produced hit albums, but have created music for such hit TV shows as CSI: NY, CSI: Las Vegas, America's Next Top Model, Pimp My Ride, J Lo's Dance Life, Step It Up 2, and Big Brother, as well as the feature films Spiderman, Annapolis, and many more. Kate Raynor has also helped many television actors that appear in shows such as CSI, Young and the Restless, Ghost Whisperer, Xena the Warrior Princess, Power Rangers, and too many others to list. Her clients also include professional athletes playing for such teams as the Miami Fusion and internationally ranked tennis and world dance champions.

But Kate Raynor does not only represent celebrities. She also represents musicians, directors, writers, and just about every type of entertainment professional you can think of. Many of her clients have won Academy Awards and platinum records in their own countries.

Once you have looked over the glamorous photos that grace the walls of her waiting room, Raynor comes out, and you are greeted by yet another picture of Hollywood glamour, except that this picture is not hanging on any wall. Kate Raynor possesses all of the qualities one might expect from a Hollywood attorney; she is beautiful, charming, and intelligent, but she also has mastery over that down to earth, relatable presence Hollywood is so well known for.

Kate Raynor offers each new client a free consultation during which she reviews their documents, and guides them in creating an immigration package. One advantage that entertainers gain from using Kate Raynor as opposed to other immigration attorneys is that, because of her experience, she knows what entertainers need in order to qualify for visas and green cards. Many times foreign celebrities will go to attorneys who don't specialize in entertainment law, only to be turned down by immigration. They will then go to Kate Raynor, and she will get them approved.

Another advantage of using Kate Raynor is her honesty and integrity. If, after your free consultation, she does not believe you will qualify for a visa or green card, she will tell you right there. But, she won't abandon your cause. Instead, she will offer you career advice and guidance, so that you may qualify in the future. If Kate Raynor believes in an individual, she is willing to stick with him or her as long as it takes.

Although most of her clients are foreign celebrities, Raynor is also highly sought by Hollywood production companies who want to bring performers or directors to work on projects, but don't know how to get the proper clearance. She is also sought after by foreign production companies and film finance companies that want to do business in the states.

Kate Raynor boasts a 98% success rate in bringing entertainers over to the US. And, her clients are very appreciative. It should also be noted that Kate Raynor does not only represent stars. She runs a full service immigration law office, and can handle any and all immigration needs. Although her office is fully staffed, she personally works on every case, and works one on one with all of her clients. If you would like to use Kate Raynor's services, or simply want to learn more:
